

Malt whisky 'Uisge Beatha' (The Water of Life) (Please note, all whiskies are subject to availability)
Highlands Smooth &amp; Floral
Known as one of the most scenic regions in Scotland, this and of rugged peaks and heather covered moorland is geographically the largest of the whisky-producing regions. It covers three major areas and a variety of warm, rounded single malt whiskies: The West Coast (West Highlands) with its maritime influence on malts such as Oban. The Central Highlands, including the heather and honey from one of Scotland's highest distilleries: Dalwhinnie.
AnCnoc 18 years. Full-bodied and bold, aromatic spices, fruit loaf and candied lemon are followed by a surge of vanilla, honey and caramel. The finish transforms from peppery and hot to deliciously sweet and smooth.	£17
Ardmore Legacy. It leans more on the savoury than the sweet side of things, with light barbecue char and earthy notes up-front. Sweet cinnamon, fresh honey and vanilla toffee waft up at points. Charred, smoky notes, joined by drying oak, pear drops and subtle grassy touches. Give it a minute for citrus zest and expressive heather to appear. With a lasting peat smoke finish, with a little bit of honey'd barley for good measure.	£6.65
Ardnamurchan "The Midgie". Ardnamurchan are heralding the impending arrival of the most vicious of Highland creatures, the Midgie! They have collaborated with Smidge, the UK's leading insect repellent, to bring you this dram. This year's release is a UK only exclusive, only 6200 bottles available. The Midgie is made up of a beady mix of Madeira and Sauternes barriques, with a Sherry butt and some Bourbon barrels in the vatting for balance and body. They have used peated and unpeated spirit in this whisky.	£8
Balblair 12 years. The elegant and approachable Balblair 12 Year Old is the first whisky in the Balblair Collection and has been matured in a combination of double-fired American oak casks and ex-bourbon casks. The result is a whisky with a warm, complex character and a sweet, citrusy aroma. The palate offers notes of oranges, honey and cinnamon before a long, creamy finish with hints of vanilla and leather.	£6
Balblair 15 years. The second whisky in the Balblair Collection, Balblair 15 Year Old is a full-bodied, velvety single malt that has been matured in ex-bourbon casks and finished in first-fill Spanish oak butts. This creates a rich, sweet whisky with spicy aromas of honey, gingerbread and prunes. The palate is velvety-smooth and full of dark chocolate, tropical fruit and warm spice notes.	£12

Tomatin 2010 Amarone. The Italian Collection from Tomatin consists of three releases finished in Italian wine casks. This release was distilled in 2010 and aged for ten years in ex-bourbon casks followed by a finishing period in barrels that formerly held Amarone. Smelling of orchard fruit mixed with dried fruits, orange peel and marzipan, with sweet tawny Port-like tasting notes, red cherries, toffee and cinnamon, transitioning into lingering baking spices, raisin and caramel flavours to finish.	£8
Tomatin 2010 Barolo. Fragrantly aromatic with notes of marzipan and chocolate. Red fruit like cherries and cranberries with baking spices and orange, with a sweet and subtly nutty finish.	£8
Tomatin 2010 Marsala. Lots of warming spices like ginger with honeycomb, toffee, touch of tobacco here too and orangey fruit. Orange peel, peppery spicy, toffee and subtle flavours of almond and orange peel. Citrus note lingers with roasted oak notes.	£8
Tomatin 2008 Palo. Aromas of cinder toffee and dried orange provide a rich and inviting introduction. These are followed by notes of milk chocolate, toasted fruit loaf and Brazil nuts on the palate. It has a tangy and complex finish, with hints of black tea and ginger.	£9
Tomatin 2006 Pedro Jimenez. Indulgent sticky toffee pudding and espresso. Lemon curd, golden syrup, dates, dried fig and muscovado sugar. The finish is long with notes of rum, raisin, and decadent dark chocolate.	£15
Tomatin 2014 Manzanilla. It carries depth with delicious aromas of sourdough bread and salty popcorn on the nose. These are perfectly balanced with dried fruits, chamomile tea, grapefruit, maple syrup and salted walnut on the palate. Characteristic of the Manzanilla, the finish is slightly salty with warm brown butter.	£5.50
Speyside
Fruity &amp; Delicate Over half of Scotland's malt whiskey distilleries can be found within this one region. Speyside – the lush, fertile valley of the river Spey – is undoubtedly the heart of single malt whiskey distilling in Scotland. Its classic flavours of honey, vanilla and fresh fruits (apples, pears) combine to create whiskies that are both sophisticated and elegant. With age, and especially when matured in sherry casks, they evolve to deliver dried fruit and sweet spice flavours.
Aberlour, 12 years. Classic Speyside Single Malt. It is gold in colour with a dry fresh fruity aroma with sweet notes of mint toffee. It has smooth and creamy taste, with spicy-sweet nutmeg & honey combining with the deny freshness of autumn fruits. A long, soft warming finish.	£8
Aberlour Casg Annamh. Meaning “rare cask” in Scots Gaelic, single malt created in small batches from whiskey matured in Oloroso sherry casks.	£8
Aberlour A’Bunadh. The name is Scotch Gaelic for “the original” or “the origin.” The whiskey was inspired by the discovery of a time capsule, dated to 1898, during the installation of a second set of stills in 1975. A’bunadh is an attempt to recreate the style of whiskey produced by the Aberlour	£10.50

Glenlivet, 18 years. The balanced & elegant whiskey, with rich fruit aromas & toffee notes. Wonderfully balanced, with burst of sweet oranges. Long finish, with spice & moist raisin notes.	£18.50
Glenlivet, Founder's Reserve. Fruity, then sweet, with notes of toffee, anise, milk chocolate, banoffee pie and apple turnovers.	£7
The Singleton, 12 years. Orange zest spiciness perks up a malty core of nuts, oak and toffee, hints of cut grass. Oaky, rich with good length, some fruit lingers.	£5.50
Tamdhu. Matured in ex-sherry casks for 12 years, this rich, elegant Tamdhu holds aromas of cinnamon rolls, orange candy, fresh oak, raisins and faint traces of mint. The palate offers notes of banana, raspberry jam, malty biscuits and toasted oak, before developing into ground cinnamon, dried fruit and Scottish tablet flavours that linger in the finish.	£10
Tomintoul Tlath. Pronounced 'Tlab', Tlath means gentle and/or mellow. With Tomintoul known as 'the gentle dram', this particular expression is along the same easy-going Speysider lines and is matured in American oak ex-bourbon barrels.	£9
Islay and Islands Peaty &amp; Maritime
Sitting amongst the Isles of Scotland are a scattering of malt whiskey producing islands such as the Isle of Islay, Jura, Arran, Mull, Orkney, Raasay and Skye. Rugged, windswept &amp; barren, the island landscapes generally produce single malt whiskeys with strong peaty, maritime aromas. The Island malts are unmistakably powerful, bursting with flavour, from the recognised smokiness apparent in almost all offerings, to the more surprising notes such as the black pepper found in Talisker.
Ardbeg, 10 years. An initial moderate and clean sweetness is rapidly followed by a mouthful of deep peat notes, with tobacco smoke and strong espresso coffee, which then gives way to treacle sweetness and liquorice. The mouth feel is firstly lightly spiced (astringent), then chewing, mouth-watering, full and finally dry.	£8.50
Ardbeg, An Oa. Pronounced "An Oh" named after the mull of Oa located near the distillery. Matured in a combination of casks including Pedro Ximénez, charred virgin oak and ex-bourbon casks. This whiskey still has plenty of peaty oomph, although perhaps lighter in body. Notes of cigars and golden syrup flapjacks with sweet black tea on the tail and hints of chocolate limes.	£9.50
Ardbeg, Uigeadail. Uigeadail (pronounced 'Oog-a-dal'). A fine drop of Ardbeg bottled at cask strength. A marriage of Ardbeg from bourbon barrel and sherry butt which gives a sweet and smoky finish to this malt. Uigeadail is the loch from which all Ardbeg water flows.	£12.00
Bowmore, 12 years. Bowmore has the classic peat of an Islay with a new set of flavours to caress your pallet. Floods of honey, & a citrus flavour of lemon/orange to commingle on the palate with	£8

an overture or earthy smoke. As soon as it leaves the tongue an effervescent taste of salt water &amp; toffee. The after taste is one of a sophisticated smoky, sweet, salty, &amp; ginger that is long lasting.
Bowmore, 15 years. Finished in Sherry casks, imparting a rich sweetness that blends well with the peaty elements. This whisky has rich, woody, pine oil notes. Syrupy, creamy toffee and malt notes, with the character smokiness of Bowmore.	£13
Bruichladdich, The Classic Laddie. Lightly peaty, grain mash sweet & just a touch salty - the mid-palate impression is meatier as tangy tastes of sea breeze, unsweetened coconut & oak resin unite.	£6.50
Bunnahabhain, 12 years. Intense but still sweet with some peat hints, a rather rustic but still delicate taste.	£8.50
Bunnahabhain, 18 years. Meaning foot of the river. Non-chill filtered and natural colour, this rich mahogany malt is one of the favourites. It is intensely warming with dried fruit, sherry, toffee and spices leading to a rich honeyed nuttiness.	£25.00
Caol Ila, 12 years. Caol Ila 12-Year-Old is of medium weight, but still packing plenty of potent phenols, this is a refined, powerful dram with a compensating oiliness. A balanced, peaty beauty.	£9.00
Highland Park, 12 years. Smoky sweetness; full malt delivery. With teasing, heathery and delicious finish.	£5.00
Jura, Seven Wood. Matured in a combination of seven different types of oak – first bourbon and then a finish in each of Vosges, Jupilles, Les Bertranges, Allier, Tronçais, and Limousin casks. The result is spicy but run through with chocolate and fruit, thanks to wide range of flavours from the casks.	£8.50
Jura, 10 years. Light peaty notes, with fruit and spicy overtones.	£7.50
Jura, 12 years. Reassuringly rich with smoky, sherry sweetness.	£10
Islay and Islands continued...
Jura, 18 years. Soft, smoky, and packed with rich fruit flavour.	£11
Jura, 21 years. Matured for 21 years in ex-bourbon barrels, before being finished in virgin American white oak casks, creating a sweet and spicy character with creamy caramel, ginger biscuit and ripe berry aromas. The palate offers notes of sweet gingerbread, white chocolate, vanilla, macaroons and custard, with a spicy fresh ginger edge.	£20.50
Kilchoman. Butterscotch and floral notes combine with tropical and candied fruits with integrated peat smoke flowing throughout. Sweetness continues onto the finish, balanced with clean lingering smoke and rich texture.	£11.00
Arran, 10 years. Arran 10 years is a medium-bodied, citrusy dram that shows an elegance & deftness of touch that belies the distillery's youth. Tasting the complexity and assurance of this youngster it is difficult to believe that the distillery only opened in 1995. A great achievement.	£7.50
Arran, High Seas Smugglers Series no.2. A powerful marriage of whisky matured in the finest rum casks with time-honoured peated spirit and a rich layer of first-fill bourbon barrel adding sweetness.	£45.00
Laphroaig, 10 years. Surprising sweetness with hints of salt and layers of peatiness.	£8.50
Lagavulin, 16 years. Dry peat smoke fills the palate with a gentle but strong sweetness, followed by sea and salt with touches of wood.	£15
Talisker, 10 years. Rich dried-fruit sweetness with clouds of smoke and strong barley-malt flavours, warming and intense. At the back of the mouth is an explosion of pepper.	£8
Talisker, 18 years. A rich fruity nose – Victoria plums/perhaps dried orange peel, with a hint of butterscotch or rum toffee, some smoke in the foreground – medium finish.	£14
Talisker, 25 years. This is medium-bodied and smooth with a subtle smoky base; the balance is perfect with hints of sweet caramel and the typical briny salinity that characterises the distillery.	£49

Tobermory, 12 years. Released in early 2019, this 12 year old single malt from Tobermory was launched in celebration of the distillery returning to life after a two year break! This expression slumbered peacefully in American oak casks for a dozen years before being bottled at 46.3% ABV. What a way to get back in the swing of things! Peaty, fruity on a woody background. Little nuttiness.	£8.50
Ledaig, 10 years. The Tobermory Distillery on the picturesque Isle of Mull isn't home to just unpeated whisky. It also makes superbly smoky single malt under the name of Ledaig (that name isn't simply a coincidence, by the way - Ledaig was one of the distillery's previous names!). Distilled using the same pot stills as the classic unpeated Tobermory expression, just with peated barley instead, the whisky boasts plumes of rich, earthy, almost medicinal smoke, with underlying fresh fruit and crushed spice notes.	£5.50
Raasay. It's the flagship single malt from the Isle of Raasay Distillery, the first legal distillery to operate on the eponymous island. Peated and unpeated Raasay spirits are individually matured in a combination of rye whiskey, chinkapin oak, and Bordeaux red wine casks, before being married together for this exceptional dram. Taking influence from the older styles of Hebridean single malts, this expression is lightly peated, with a fragrant balance of dark berries and delicate peat smoke, sweet, dark caramel, and biscuity malt. Creamy oak and peppery barley tangle beneath.	£13
Lowland  The region is home to distilleries such as: Annandale Distillery in Annan; Auchentoshan near Clydebank; Bladnoch in Galloway; Daftmill in Fife; The Girvan Distilleries near Girvan; and Glenkinchie distillery near Edinburgh.
Auchentoshan Three Woods. This unique Auchentoshan Lowland Single Malt Whisky has been matured in three different cask types. Moving from American Bourbon to Spanish Oloroso Sherry – and finally Pedro Ximenez Sherry casks. Three Wood is a rich, complex whisky with incredible toffee & sherry oak flavours.	£10
Auchentoshan, American Oak. A triple distilled single malt Scotch whisky aged entirely in first and second fill American oak casks. A light, bright whisky with plenty of vanilla sweetness at its centre, and notes of Bounty bars, citrus peels and peaches. A little bit buttery, with golden barley and oak spice developing on the mid palate.	£6
Auchentoshan, 18 years. An infusion of ripe citrus and green tea, the warmth of toasted almonds and the signature smooth, delicate Auchentoshan taste.	£15
Girvan, 25 years. A well-aged grain whisky with vanilla fudge and a touch of lemon and lime zest on nose. A pleasant mouth feels with some more vanilla and a little apricot on the palate with a woody finish.	£38
Glenkinchie, 12 years. Glenkinchie 12-Year-Old shows off the characteristic lightness and grassy elements that Lowland whiskies are known for, with nods to cooked fruit and Sauternes wine along the way. Very fruity palate with a mix of stewed fruits, dessert wine, apple peels and honey. Becomes quite oaky late palate.	£8
Kilkerran Heavily Peated. The peat smoke is soft and sweet, with notes of toasted marshmallows typical of the Kilkerran Heavily Peated range. Hints of gooseberries and parma violets develop over time. The sweetness lingers in the finish in notes of orange pulp.	£7
Springbank, 10 years. The nose is big-bodied with oaked aridity. The peat is present & quite pungent with an earthen rootiness. Notes of exotic fruits & a hint of salinity. The palate is full-bodied with good helping cereal sweetness. There is richness to the peat, with a dark nuttiness & whirling smoke. The finish is long & crisp with a coastal tang & a trailing peat with oaked dryness.	£11
Springbank 12 years cask strength. The smoky, earthy note continues on the palate and a nuttiness is introduced in notes of pistachios. Notes of caramelised brown sugar, prunes and custard. A sea salt note emerges in the finish along with notes of red apple skin.	£9.50

Springbank, 15 years. Fragrant with a certain richness. Notes of fruit salad and a hint of caramel, pineapple, guava and passion fruit lurk. There are notes of dried leather and old ropes. A hint of toffee sweetness and some granary toast.	£14
Scottish Blended Whiskies
Ballantines, 17 years. It's vibrant, well balanced, and properly packed with honey, apples and biscuits with a hint of smoke.	£11
Ballantines, 21 years. Subtle wood smoke on the nose with soft palate of barley, honey, and Seville marmalade.	£18.50
Campbelltown Loch. Oily with herbaceous hints creeping in beneath sweet vanilla caramel and juicy baked fruit. Seaweed salinity and sweet baking spice bring balance, with whispers of peat poking through. Whisps of ginger and nutmeg, sweet tea, oatcakes, and subtly smokey oak.	£5.50
Chivas Regal, 12 years. A spicy, beautifully balanced blend with lingering notes of cereal sweetness.	£5.50
Chivas Regal, 18 years. Aromas of orange peel, vanilla fudge and malted barley. Medium bodied palate with hints of marmalade, dark chocolate and touch of wood and smoke. Long well-balanced finish with spice emanating from the oak.	£11.50
Scottish Blended Whiskies continued...
Chivas Regal, 25 years. Soft and gentle, with an elegant toffee-like character, with notes of malt and berry fruits, hints of liquorice, raspberries, and sweet porridge oats.	£31.50
Bells. Quite smooth and medium bodied with notes of fruitcake and smoke.	£5.50
Famous Grouse. A very malty, biscuit blend with just a hint of spice and a slightly sweet finish.	£5.50
